The Book of Nations

Public Domain 2015

Book of Nations is an idea and vision to bring to the human awareness around the world aware sense of diversity, yet, dignity and fairness toward all nations and ethnic fabric around the world since the beginning of time. Human society is diverse for a reason. Diversity is the key, a path to greatness, greatness which dwells in inclusiveness.

Diversity require attention. Diversity require fairness. Diversity demand effort toward recognition of vision.

Ethnic ingenuity, new paths of thinking, new solutions, a new never before explored manifestation of creativity is, de facto, a global collective bank of knowledge, accomplishments and experiences how often frequently forgotten or misplaced by time, circumstances.

The sequence of times, challenges, unique imprint of each man and generation, ethnic group including language, culture, shall be preserve and chersih.

Respect and dignity of each man, every ethnic group, through recognition of existence is of paramount importance.

Nations are blending, yet, we shall preserve their imprint in time. The Book of Nations is an idea, my own, within multitudes of hearts, who think and manifest identical attitudes, an idea to bring to the light of awareness this very imprint, yet, aware urgency. While respecting others we ultimately respect ourselves.

Every issue we tackle with, is a moral issue.

God is collecting human virtues. Satan is collecting sins. The Book of Nations is the collection of virtues, composed, animated, yet, unique, one of a kind in every scale, singular as well social.
